Monroe Boys and Girls Club

261 Sky River Parkway

Monroe, Wa 98272

Whether you are looking for a fresh start, a better job, or a new career direction, job seekers will find a wealth of exciting opportunities at this bi-annual free job fair!

The East Snohomish County Job Fair is a regional collaboration and proudly organized by six community organizations including Boys & Girls Clubs of Snohomish County Monroe Unit, City of Monroe, Goodwill of Monroe, Monroe Chamber of Commerce, WorkSource Snohomish County, and Sno-Isle Libraries.

This job fair will provide job seekers access to employers seeking talented candidates in almost every discipline, from hospitality and health care to finance, education and everything in between. Nearly 50 local employers and employment resource organizations will be participating at this fall's job fair event.

“By supporting and assisting in the regional collaboration of events like the East Snohomish County Job Fair, that connects our talented workforce with top-notch employers, the Monroe Chamber, Boys and Girls Club, Goodwill, WorkSource, Sno-Isle Libraries and the City of Monroe are helping to build a stronger community and cultivate growth to positively impact our local economic vitality,” said Yvonne M. Gallardo-Van Ornam, Monroe Chamber of Commerce Executive Director. “Job Fairs help local businesses find qualified job seekers in our area and creates an opportunity for local residents to find work close to home which in turn helps support our economy. We look forward to connecting regional businesses to local talent.”

WorkSource Snohomish County, Goodwill, Sno-Isle Libraries provide free services, resources, and tools to assist both job seekers and employers with the entire job search process, hiring and employment needs. These organizations have services available online and onsite to assist job seekers including internet access, employment counseling, and career assessments, as well as, workshops on job searching, resume writing and interviewing techniques.
